

A Great Multitude No One Can Count

October 5, 2025

Target Passage → Revelation 7:9

1. Have you ever noticed the universal message of God about reaching the nations in the Old Testament?
2. How would this perspective change the way you read the Old Testament?
3. The nation of Israel seemed to focus only on themselves rather than reaching the nations around them. Has the church in the West also fallen into the same perspective? If so, please explain.
4. Iran was mentioned in the sermon as an illustration of how God uses other nations to fulfill God's salvation purposes. Does this fact help you to reconsider how you view international news?
5. Global trends point to mass migration throughout the world. How much is your understanding and reaction to immigration through the current political lens or through the redemptive lens?
6. There is a change in Christian demographics with the global south now making the majority Christian population. How does this information change your perspective of the world and the state of Christianity in the global north?
7. The USA is the top country receiving missionaries. How should this change where we view reaching our changing community?
8. The racial demographics have changed in our schools and soon our city. How should our church and we personally respond?